P.W. (R.D.): "It was an ideal day and run -- no rain, no major injuries, manageable bugs -- and a very congenial group; it's the reason we go -- to see our friends!

Runners came from Paonia, Moab, Rangely, Hayden. The Moabite, Ranna Bieschke, even brought a large box of potato chip sacks. Nita Mancuso met her husband at Eggleston Camp Ground, hence the shorter distance. (No shortage of superlatives for this event and location!)"
